

2009 UL Testing - 1st Candidate Application Deadline

Posted by: "Laura Cannon" testing@ponyclub.org
Fri Dec 12, 2008 12:14 pm (PST)

Dear DC's,

Just a reminder for testing - The next deadline for Upper Level (H-B through A) candidate applications is postmark date (tests held between February 26th - May 31st)..January 15th. Please advise your club's candidates of this deadline if you have anyone interested in taking an Upper Level test. (and let them know if there is an earlier application deadline date to the RS. Check with your RS)

The candidate application is located on the Forms Page under "T" > Testing- Candidate Application H-B and up.

You will also need the Medical Release 2009, located on the Forms Page under "M".

Please download, read and distribute to your Upper Level candidates the document > Testing Information 2009 (located on the Forms Page under "T") as this outlines the application, withdraw, refund, etc. procedure for upper level tests. It will also answer many questions you may have about the application and testing process.

The Testing Schedule (list of tests being offered) is located on the USPC Website> Front Page> Under> Opportunities and Events.

Upper Level Testing Application Deadlines (postmarked by):

For H-B, C-3, B, H/H-A and A:

(tests held between February 26th - May 31st)..January 15th

(tests held between June 1st - August 31st)..April 15th

(tests held between September 1st - November 25th)..July 15th

(tests held between November 26th - December 31st)..October 15th

Any test before February 26th will have a six-week out deadline as indicated on the testing schedule

Thank you and we send best wishes to your candidates in 2009.